

The LEGION of MARY Jacksonville Curia

Dear Friends of the Legion of Mary:

The annual Legion of Mary consecration ceremony will be held this year at St. Catherine Church, 1649 Kingsley Avenue, Orange Park, FL, beginning at 2:30 p.m., Sunday, March 21.

The ceremony is called by the Latin name “Acies,” which means an army in battle array. All members, auxiliary as well as active, are strongly encouraged to take part. A covered dish supper will follow in the hall. Everyone is welcome to attend the Mass (which will fulfill your Sunday obligation), Acies, covered dish, and a very short curia meeting following supper. .

Queen of Apostles praesidium at St. Catherine’s is hosting the Acies. If you are curious about the Legion of Mary, and/or think you might want to take part in one of these works, attend one of the meetings held in your area. Or visit our website: www.jaxcuria.org.

Sincerely in Mary,

The LEGION of MARY Jacksonville Curia

Dear Friends of the Legion of Mary:

The annual Legion of Mary consecration ceremony will be held this year at St. Catherine Church, 1649 Kingsley Avenue, Orange Park, FL, beginning at 2:30 p.m., Sunday, March 21.

The ceremony is called by the Latin name “Acies,” which means an army in battle array. All members, auxiliary as well as active, are strongly encouraged to take part. A covered dish supper will follow in the hall. Everyone is welcome to attend the Mass (which will fulfill your Sunday obligation), Acies, covered dish, and a very short curia meeting following supper. .

Queen of Apostles praesidium at St. Catherine’s is hosting the Acies. If you are curious about the Legion of Mary, and/or think you might want to take part in one of these works, attend one of the meetings held in your area. Or visit our website: www.jaxcuria.org.

Sincerely in Mary,